RIFLE RECORD OF 4TH CAVALRY IS DISAPPOINTMENT

Hawaiian Department headquarters, U. S. A., made public today the results of the recent rifle proficiency tests held at Schofield Barracks August 19 and 20, the entire 4th Cavalry participating.

Due to unfavorable weather conditions, much cloudy weather and lack of sunshine rendering the targets much less clearly visible than would otherwise have been the case, the regiment's record is not as good as last year. Nine troops of the regiment's 12 were found satisfactory, whereas in 1914 all qualified.

This year's work featured combat firing, under actual field conditions, which are widely different from ordinary rifle practice conditions.

NATIONAL GUARD NEWS

In honor of Col. Samuel I. Johnson, the adjutant-general, National Guard of Hawaii, officers of the organization will give a dinner at 7 o'clock tonight at the Alexander Young Hotel's roof garden. Governor Lucius E. Pinkham, as commander-in-chief of the National Guard of the territory, will be present and make a short address. At 8 o'clock the National Guard band will give a concert, and the public is invited to be present. This will be the band's first public appearance since its organization.

Company B, 1st Infantry, last night gave a smoker in honor of 2d Lieut. Stevenson, soon to leave for the mainland as a member of the Hawaii rifle team entered in the national rifle shooting competition at Jacksonville, Florida.

At this enjoyable affair the guests of honor were Lieut.-col. Riley, Capt. Redington, Capt. and Mrs. W. E. Ayer, Lieut. and Mrs. E. G. Owenshine, Lieut. and Mrs. J. K. Simons, Jr., guest of Lieut. and Mrs. Fred W. Pitts; 1st Lieut. C. H. Bonesteel, guest of Capt. and Mrs. J. L. Jordan; 2nd Lieut. G. J. Gonserv, guest of Lieut. James A. Ulio; 2nd Lieut. John N. Smith, Jr., Robert T. Snow and Frank J. Riley are temporarily residing in Capt. G. V. Packard's quarters. 2nd Lieut. Edward C. Rose and Frank V. Schneider have rooms at the 1st Infantry officers' mess.

Assignment to companies and selection of quarters will take place some time today. There are at present only eight sets of vacant quarters. There is some uncertainty as to the method to be used in selecting quarters but it is understood that those selecting quarters at present occupied will be required to wait until the departure of the present occupants before acquiring them; and until then will have to make some temporary arrangements.

The officers of the 1st Infantry due to leave for the mainland on the November transport are as follows: Capt. Henry M. Bates, Capt. Frank C. Burnett, 1st Lieut. Henry A. Wells, 1st Lieut. George W. Harris, 1st Lieut. Harry S. Malone, 1st Lieut. John M. True, 1st Lieut. Irving J. Phillips. Word has been received that the October transport will be entirely given over to troops returning from the Philippines.

Officers to the 25th Infantry. Major and Mrs. Frank H. Albright arrived on the Logan to join the 25th and are guests of Capt. and Mrs. Charles Bates. Maj. Albright will have command of the 3rd battalion in place of Maj. Gose, recently detailed as inspector general. Maj. Albright comes from Washington, D. C., where he has been attending the Army War college. He has served with the 20th Infantry before and for a greater number of years and says it is like getting back home.

Capt. George S. Steunenberg returns after several months' illness at the Letterman General hospital, Presidio of San Francisco.

1st Lieut. Eugene Robinson joins from the 16th Infantry and is staying with Lieut. W. C. Philoon.

Chaplain and Mrs. O. J. W. Scott and two children have returned from leave. Their oldest son, Albert, was left in school on the mainland.

1st Lieut. David C. Seagrave and 1st Lieut. John Lund, who were to have arrived on the Logan to join the 1st Field Artillery, have both resigned from the army to take positions with companies manufacturing ordnance supplies. Both were until recently detailed captains in the Ordnance Department.

Capt. Douglas McCaskey, 4th Cavalry, is another officer who was expected to return on the Logan. He has been ordered to remain in San Francisco to act as one of the judges of the military events at the exposition horse show to be held next month.

1st Lieut. Ralph McT. Pennell, who is en route to join the 2nd Field Artillery at Camp Stotsenberg, P. I., was a visitor at Schofield Barracks yesterday. Mrs. Pennell and children will follow on the next transport but will stop at Schofield for several weeks as guests of Lieut. and Mrs. John Hatch, 1st Field Artillery.

Things hummed around the National Guard armory last night. Something was going on in every department of the big structure.

With 68 men, present and absent—three more than the minimum required—Company D, 1st Infantry, was given a special inspection by Lieut. W. C. Whitener, inspector-instructor, N. G. H. A. L. C. Atkinson was the last man to join the company, and was heartily greeted as he walked out on the drill floor.

The non-commissioned officers club, N. G. H., is planning a smoker in honor of the non-commissioned officers who belong to the National Guard rifle team, which leaves for Florida soon. At the entertainment, which will be held at the armory next Monday night, a number of "stunts" will be pulled off and refreshments served.

Three companies were at drill last night, and the new 1st Infantry band played several appreciated selections. The new engineer company was also present and was addressed by Capt. R. P. Howell, Engineer Corps, U. S. A. Lieut. A. K. B. Lyman, U. S. A., also spoke to the company concerning recruiting and enlistments.

Prospects are good for the engineers' company of the National Guard, but considerable work remains yet before enough men are enlisted to bring the company up to the required strength, 65 men, for mustering in. Capt. Laurence W. Redington, assistant to the adjutant-general, said today that those who would like to join the company, which consists mainly of men with technical training of some kind, can do so by applying either to National Guard headquarters in the armory or at the office of Capt. Charles R. Forbes, superintendent of public works, and commanding the prospective company.

Schofield Notes

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
SCHOFIELD, September 16.—In addition to the return from leave of Col. D. L. Howell and 2nd Lieut. Robert Sears, the 1st Infantry received from the transport Logan which docked late Tuesday evening, 19 new officers.

As soon as a list of the newcomers was received by Lieut.-col. W. E. Ayer, a return wireless message was sent to the transport to the effect that they would all be cited for and would be met in Honolulu by the officers of the regiment. The hospitable way in which they were received has made their entry into the regiment a most pleasant one.

Many of the officers relieved from the 1st Infantry will not be able to return to the mainland until November and until that time the quarters at Castner will be somewhat congested.

Following is a list of the new arrivals:
Maj. L. S. Sorley and family, guests of Lieut.-col. and Mrs. W. E. Ayer; Capt. and Mrs. E. G. Owenshine, guests of Lieut.-col. and Mrs. Forsyth; Capt. and Mrs. P. H. McCook, guests of Lieut.-col. and Mrs. G. G. Bailey; Capt. Jack Hayes, guest of Lieut. and Mrs. G. W. Harris; Capt. and Mrs. George E. Kumpke, guests of Maj. C. E. Teyman; 1st Lieut. and Mrs. Elvid Hunt, guests of Lieut. and Mrs. Staley M. Campbell; 1st Lieut. and Mrs. T. H. Lowe and family, guests of Lieut. and Mrs. W. E. Pridgen; 1st Lieut. C. C. Bankhead, guest of Capt. and Mrs. E. C. Cary; 1st Lieut. and Mrs. B. S. Eed and 1st Lieut. W. S. Greasen, guests of Maj. J. A. Penn; 1st Lieut. C. H. Rice and family, guests of 1st Lieut. and Mrs. Elmer P. Rice; 1st Lieut. J. K. Simons, Jr., guest of Lieut. and Mrs. Fred W. Pitts; 1st Lieut. C. H. Bonesteel, guest of Capt. and Mrs. J. L. MANY IN HONOLULU TRY POWERFUL MIXTURE.

Many Honolulu people are astonished at the POWERFUL action of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ika. Just ONE SPOONFUL cleanses bowels so THOROUGH it relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour or easy stomach. One bottle has relieved mild cases appendicitis. In acute cases, get your doctor's permission to try.

One spoonful Adler-ika ONLY TWICE a week keeps entire system CLEAN and prevents appendicitis. Most medicines act only on lower bowel; Adler-ika acts on BOTH lower and upper bowel. TEN MINUTES after taking, effect begins—the INSTANT action is surprising. Although powerful, it works GENTLY and NEVER gripes. The Hollister Drug Co.
